A group of Irish protestors in New York City have been protesting the Irish government's policy on abortion. Two abortion providers have now been attacked in the country, in Dublin and Waterford. Here, they look at the group's claims. Abortion is not a right, but a privilege. People should be allowed to do with their body as they wish. The doctors themselves have made it clear that when it comes to abortion, every case is different. Abortion is at the personal discretion of a woman. Alcoholics Anonymous tells people that giving up a drink is for their own good. It's the same with getting an abortion. It doesn't make your body, your life, or your family better just because you have had an abortion. Pro-choice activists claim they are helping women. That is not the case. One of the reasons we had the 8th Amendment, is because of the horror stories that mothers and daughters were going through. Most people are pro-life and pro-choice. We are all in the same boat. When it comes to abortion, it has to be the woman and the mother who gets to decide.
